- 25X1 1. At the end of June 1948, it was decided by the Hungarian Ministry of Industry that the nationalized factory at Fuzfo should revert to its prewar and wartime production of nitroglycerin powder and other explosives.
  - 2. The factory is situated in Fuzfo in a park with its buildings well-decentralized. The factory has its own power station, which also supplies power for the town.
  - 3. After the war, this factory started to produce dyes and was to start DDT production there as well before reconversion was ordered.
